

Dragon Match

Dragons were mythical creatures. Since Dragons didn't exist in real life, Chinese artisans and storytellers created a list of animal parts that they could use as models and descriptions for their dragon art and stories.

Match the dragon's anatomy with the animal that it was modeled from and then color the dragon.

- | | |
|--------------------|--------------------|
| 1 – Head of | A carp or fish |
| 2 – Horns of | An iguana or snake |
| 3 – Eyes of | A tiger |
| 4 – Ears of | An eagle |
| 5 – Neck / body of | A cow / bull |
| 6 – Belly of | A camel |
| 7 – Scales of | A deer |
| 8 – Paws of | A rabbit |
| 9 – Claws of | A frog |

